

ABOUT US

---

The All-Hazards Incident Management Teams Association (AHIMTA) welcomes all those dedicated to the mission of incident management.

Our members include first responders, support personnel, and recovery organizations. You will find representatives of local, state, and federal incident management teams, fire service, emergency medical, emergency management, law enforcement, public health, hospitals, public works, military, school districts, and many others among our membership.

CONTACT US

---

562-261-0566

www.ahimta.org

ahimta@ahimta.org

JOIN US

---

INSPIRING
EXCELLENCE
IN INCIDENT
MANAGEMENT

WORKING PARTNERSHIPS

- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)/National Integration Center
- FEMA/US Fire Administration
- FEMA/Field Operations Directorate
- National Wildfire Coordination Group
- International Association of Chiefs of Police
- International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM)
- National Emergency Management Association/Emergency Management Assistance Compact

MEMBER BENEFITS

- Notification of training, and professional development opportunities and upcoming events
- Discounted registration fee for the Annual National AHIMTA Training and Education Symposium
- Access to Members-only directory and resource documents
- Unparalleled networking with the country's leading incident management professionals
- The opportunity to help promote, support, and enhance the profession of incident management and shape the future and growth of Incident Management Teams in the US and beyond!

NPS Photo

The AHIMTA has taken a leading role in standardizing the field of incident management and has authored the Interstate Incident Management Qualification System Guide, All-Hazards Type 3 Command and General Staff (C&G) position descriptions and position task books, and a Mission Ready Package for Type 3 IMTs.